

EURORDIS 2010 PHOTO CONTEST

Terms & Conditions

- The “EURORDIS 2010 Photo Contest” is organised by EURORDIS, the European Organisation for Rare Diseases.
- The competition is open to anyone having an interest in rare diseases.
- The contest starts on 1 December 2009. All photos must be submitted by March 31st 2010. Any photos submitted after this date will not be considered for the contest.
- The photos submitted must not have received any prizes in other competitions.
- An entry form must be filled for every photo submitted. Photos will only be presented to the jury if accompanied by the original completed entry form.
- Up to five pictures may be sent per entrant.
- Eurordis reserves the right to disqualify photos which it believes are not genuinely obtained i.e. believed to be not taken by the named entrant.
- All prizes will be awarded once a final decision has been reached. The winners will be notified by the most convenient method available.
- Winners will be announced in April 2010; the jury's decision is final.
- Copyright of submitted images will rest with the photographer. However, entry into the competition will permit unrestricted use of the images by Eurordis for communication purposes, including Rare Disease Day (website, newsletter, brochures, leaflets, posters, etc.).
- Photos must be free of any rights of third parties. The photographer must possess sole rights of use of the photos submitted.
- If the person portrayed in the video (or the family) do not want the video to be used for public communication any more, it will stop being used further by Eurordis. However, previously developed communication supports will be used until out of stock.
- Employees of Eurordis and their families, members of Eurordis' Board and their families, and members of the jury and their families are not allowed to enter the contest.
- Entering the competition implies acceptance of these rules.

About EURORDIS

The European Organisation for Rare Diseases (EURORDIS) represents 400 rare disease organisations in 40 different countries, covering more than 1,000 rare diseases. It is therefore the voice of the 30 million patients affected by rare diseases throughout Europe.

EURORDIS is a non-governmental patient-driven alliance of patient organisations and individuals active in the field of rare diseases, dedicated to improving the quality of life of all people living with rare diseases in Europe. It is supported by its members and by the French Muscular Dystrophy Association (AFM), the European Commission and private donors. Further details concerning EURORDIS and rare diseases are available at: <http://www.eurordis.org>
